— AFTERNOON TEA MENU —

From delicate sandwiches to delicious cakes, afternoon tea is quintessentially British and the brainchild of the 7th Baroness of Bedford in the early 19th century.

Feeling rather parched and weary by mid-afternoon, her new habit of taking tea and a light snack with friends proved extremely popular. As word spread, fellow members of high society were quick to follow suit, keen to participate in the very latest pastime.

By the middle of that same century, Indian Summer Houses had sprung up throughout Delhi, offering a cool retreat from the intense midday heat. Inspired by these elegant sanctuaries, we believe that good taste should not be limited to food alone. Our sumptuous surroundings mirror those in India's capital, while our introduction of the Namaste Afternoon Tea pays homage to the stylish trailblazers of the day.

If you know Namaste, you will realise that we love to honour tradition yet take every opportunity to set our own rules. With a selection of teas, coffees, snacks, sandwiches and sweet treats, whether you're spoiling yourself or someone special, we invite you to enjoy afternoon tea with a twist!
